

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

SHORTHORN INTERNATIONAL PRIZEWINNERS...1941

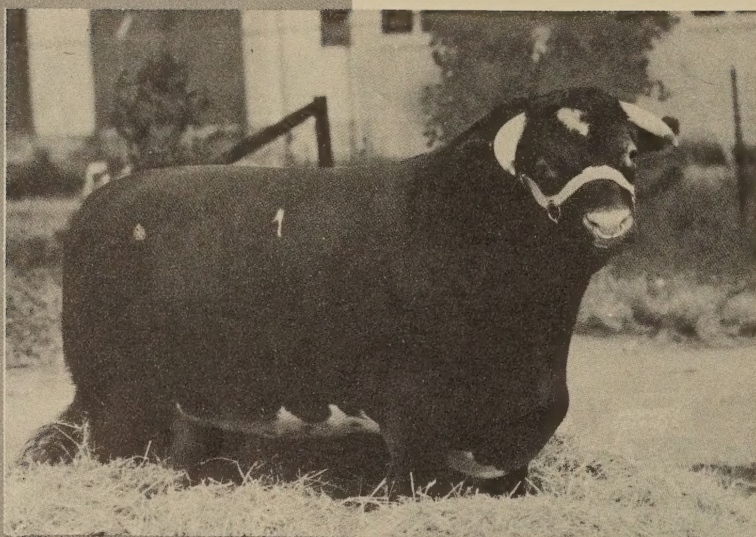

Iowa State College's three purebred Shorthorn steers that won both the get of sire and group of three steer championships, over all breeds, at the 1941 International. This is the second consecutive year—and 3 out of the last 5 years—that Shorthorns have won this coveted honor.

American Shorthorn Breeders' Association

7 DEXTER PARK AVENUE

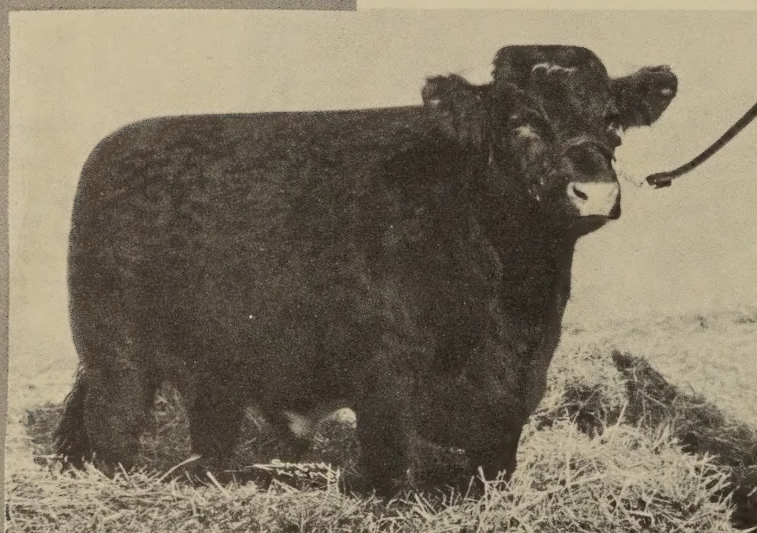

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

FIRST PRIZE

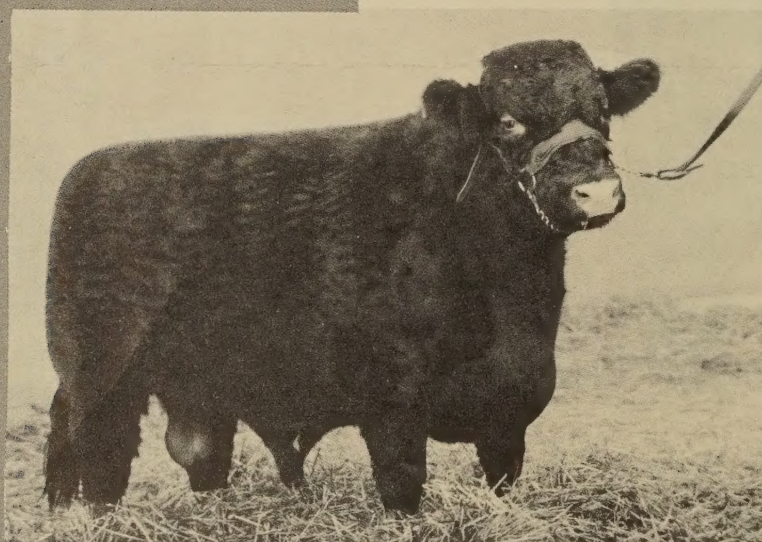

Killearn Morley =234682=, first prize 2-year-old bull. Calved June 10, 1938. Sire, Lord Rothes =216012=; dam, Danny's Vesta =269814=. Owned and exhibited by John Gardhouse & Sons, Weston, Ont., Can. Additional winnings: First prize summer yearling at 1939 International; junior champion in 1939 and grand champion at 1940 and 1941 Canadian National Expositions.

SENIOR CHAMPION

Leveldale Foray 1996436, first prize senior yearling and senior champion. Calved Nov. 9, 1939. Sire, Leveldale Commodore 1869861; dam, Leveldale Bride 2d 1712116. Bred and exhibited by Mathers Bros., Mason City, Ill. Additional 1941 winnings: Grand champion at National Western Live Stock Show and Ohio State Fair; senior champion at Wisconsin State Fair; first at American Royal.

Sheik's Jubilee 2022040, first prize junior yearling. Calved April 10, 1940. Sire, Sheik of Leveldale 1869864; dam, Calara Augusta 3rd 1911079. Bred and exhibited by Mathers Bros., Mason City, Ill. Additional 1941 winnings: Grand champion at Kentucky State Fair and American Royal; first at Illinois, Wisconsin, Ohio and Indiana State Fairs. Now owned by A. P. George, Richmond, Tex.

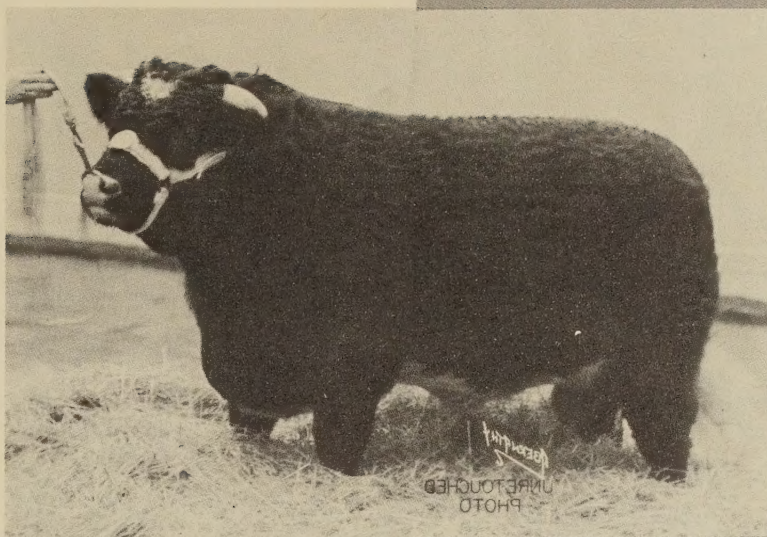

BULLS

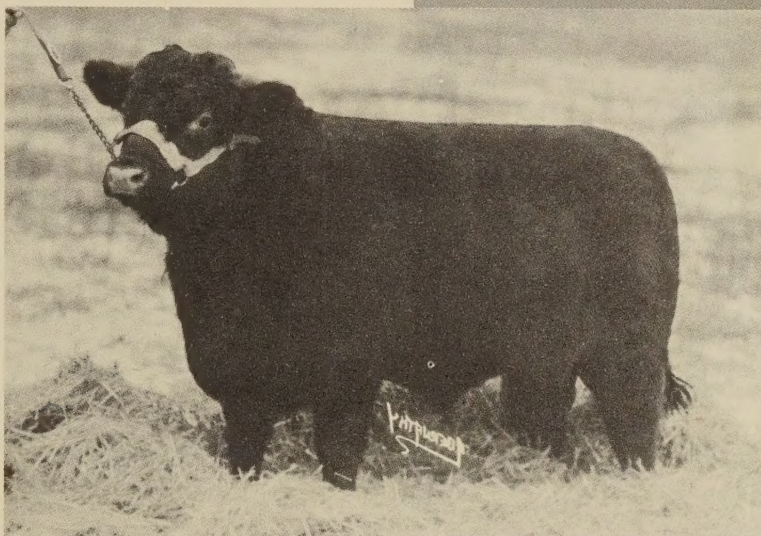

JUNIOR and GRAND CHAMPION

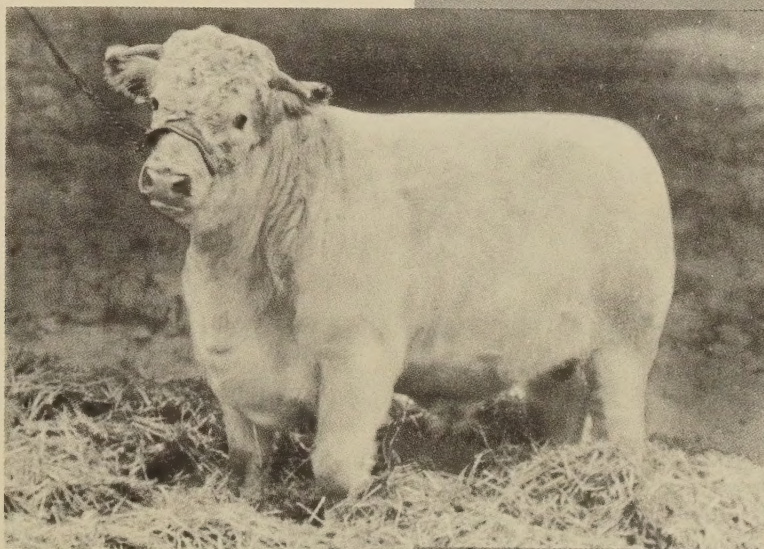

Goldfinder's Champion 2052878, first prize summer yearling and junior and grand champion. Calved June 20, 1940. Sire, Supreme Goldfinder 1920005; dam, Flora A 1931466. Bred and exhibited by Husted Bros., Truro, Iowa. Additional 1941 winnings: Junior champion at Missouri State Fair. Now owned by Clausen Bros., Spencer, Iowa.

Edellyn Royal Leader 2057560, first prize senior calf. Calved Dec. 9, 1940. Sire, Coldoch Sensation 275892; dam, Coldoch Bonny Rothes 2031989. Bred by W. McNair Snadden, Blair Drummond, Stirlingshire, Scotland. Exhibited by Edellyn Farms, Wilson, Ill. Additional 1941 winnings: Junior and grand champion at Indiana State Fair; first at American Royal.

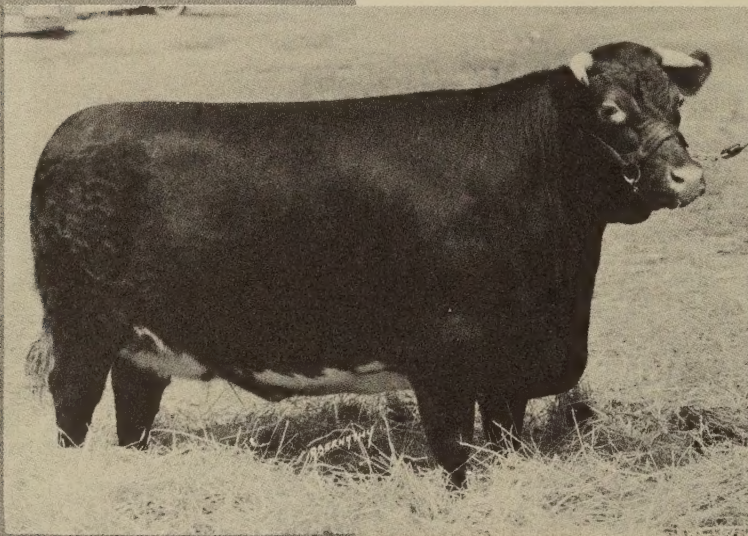

Edellyn Mission Mercury 2057558, first prize junior calf. Calved Jan. 4, 1941. Sire, Calrossie Mercury 1957318; dam, Goldie 8th 1983560. Bred and exhibited by Edellyn Farms, Wilson, Ill. Additional 1941 winnings: First at American Royal and winner of W. R. Nelson Trophy for best calf, either sex, at American Royal.

FIRST PRIZE

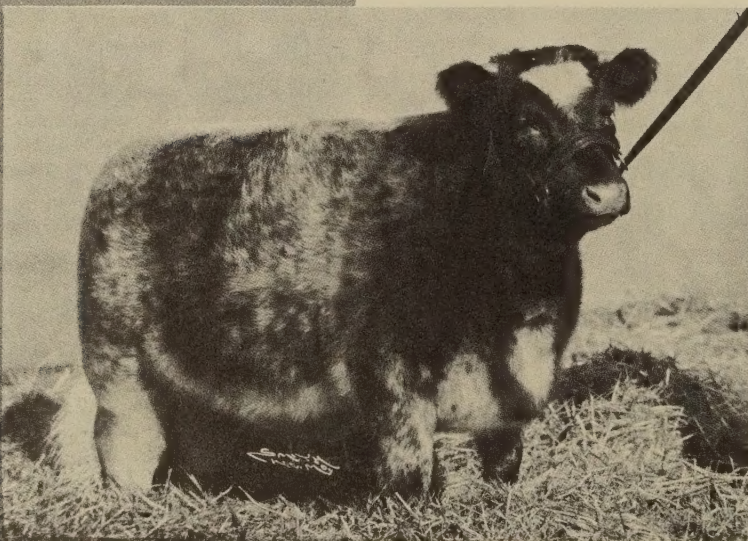

Sni-A-Bar Emma 5th 1938209, first prize 2-year-old. Calved Jan. 8, 1938. Sire, Sni-A-Bar Ensign 1637058; dam, Emma Cumberland 1406460. Bred and exhibited by Sni-A-Bar Farms, Grain Valley, Mo. Additional 1941 winnings: Grand champion at Tulsa and Kansas State Fairs, Ozark Empire Fair and American Royal; first at Missouri and Iowa State Fairs.

SENIOR and GRAND CHAMPION

Divide Patience 51st 2008875, first prize senior yearling and senior and grand champion. Calved Oct. 16, 1939. Sire, Duke of Killearn 1919448; dam, Divide Patience 43rd 1919505. Bred by The Allen Cattle Co., Colorado Springs, Colo. Exhibited by Mathers Bros., Mason City, Ill. Also grand champion at 1940 International. Additional 1941 winnings: Grand champion at National Western Live Stock Show and Illinois, Wisconsin, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky State Fairs; first at American Royal.

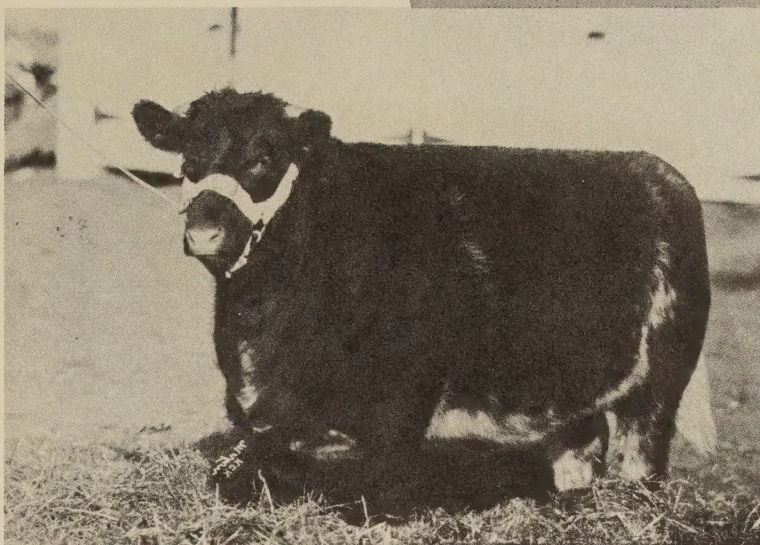

Leveldale Rosewood 10th 1996450, first prize junior yearling. Calved Jan. 1, 1940. Sire, Dreadnaught Lustrous 1852846; dam, Leveldale Rosewood 1772223. Bred and exhibited by Mathers Bros., Mason City, Ill. Additional 1941 winnings: Junior champion at Ohio State Fair; first at Wisconsin and Indiana State Fairs and American Royal.

FEMALES

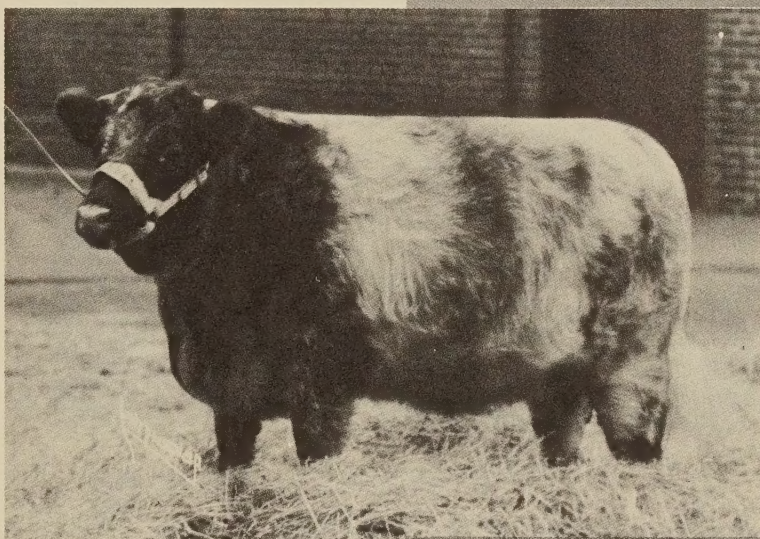

Helfred Favorite 4th 2031566, first prize summer yearling. Calved July 28, 1940. Sire, Sunray 1946437; dam, Helfred Favorite 1713607. Bred and exhibited by Helfred Farms, Des Moines, Iowa. Additional 1941 winnings: Junior champion at Illinois State Fair; first at Iowa State Fair and American Royal.

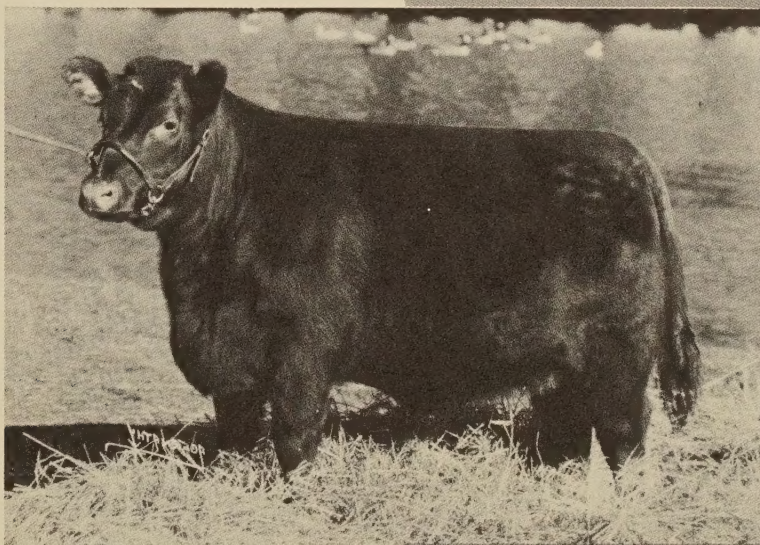

JUNIOR CHAMPION

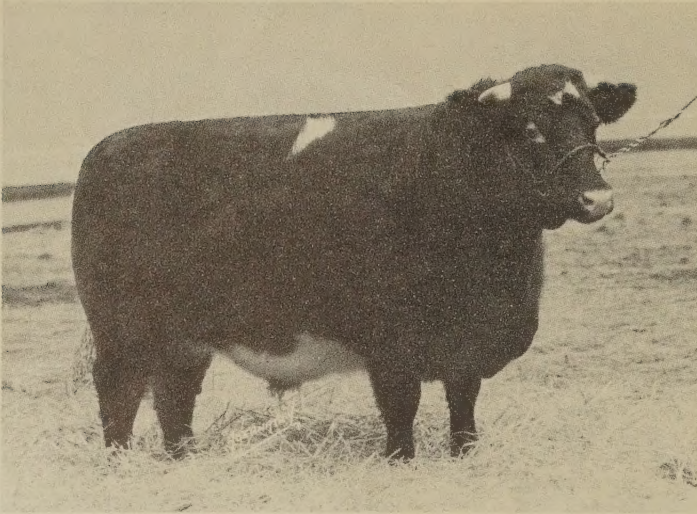

Supreme Annabella 2nd 2048751, first prize senior calf and junior champion. Calved Sept. 3, 1940. Sire, Supreme Goldfinder 1920005; dam, Annabella A 1913501. Bred and exhibited by Husted Bros., Truro, Iowa. Additional 1941 winnings: Junior champion at Iowa State Fair; first at Missouri State Fair. Now owned by Merryvale Farm, Grandview, Mo.

Marellbar Lady Augusta 19th 2059889, first prize junior calf. Calved March 4, 1941. Sire, Klaymor Cap-A-Pie 1957635; dam, Cluny Lady Augusta 18th 2006882. Bred and exhibited by Marellbar Farms, Libertyville, Ill. Not shown previously.

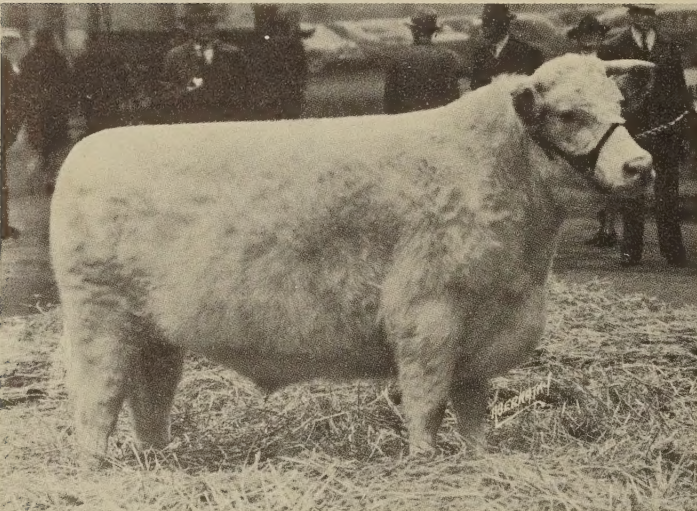

FIRST PRIZE STEERS OPEN DIVISION

CHAMPION

Heather Lad, first prize in 1150- to 1400-pound class and breed champion. Also member of champion get of sire and group of three steers, over all breeds. Bred and exhibited by Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa.

RESERVE CHAMPION

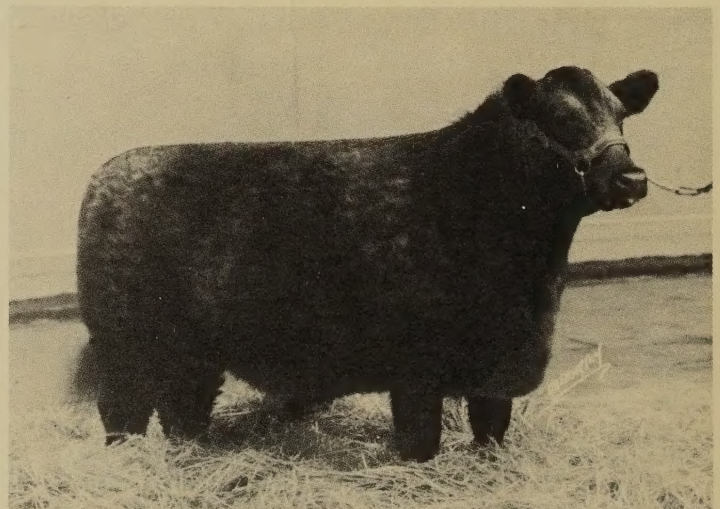

Valentine, second prize in 1150- to 1400-pound class and breed reserve champion. Also member of champion get of sire and group of three steers, over all breeds. Bred and exhibited by Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa.

Rochester, first prize in 1050- to 1150-pound class and champion, over all breeds, for this weight. Bred by Ernest Bremer, Ocheyedan, Iowa. Exhibited by Howard Taylor, Sibley, Iowa. A Polled Shorthorn. ↓

Wisconsin's Pride, first prize in 900- to 1050-pound class. By a Shorthorn sire and out of an Aberdeen-Angus dam. Bred and exhibited by Wisconsin University, Madison, Wis. ↓

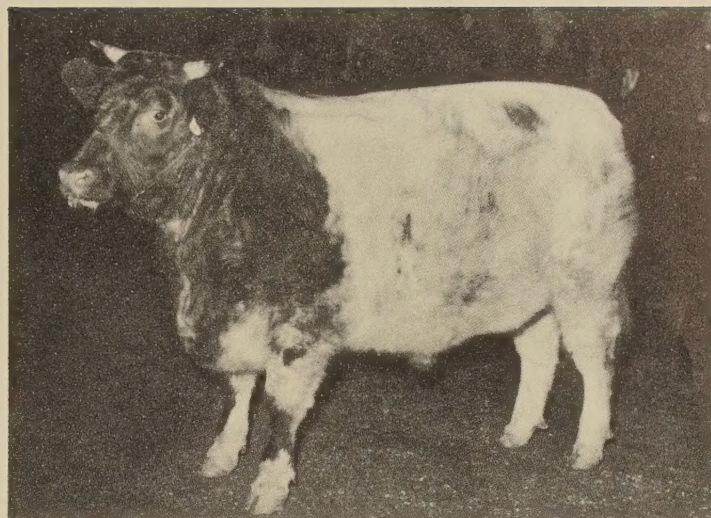

Picture not available of Monarch's Cup, first prize in 700- to 900-pound class and shown by Oklahoma A. and M. College, Stillwater, Okla.

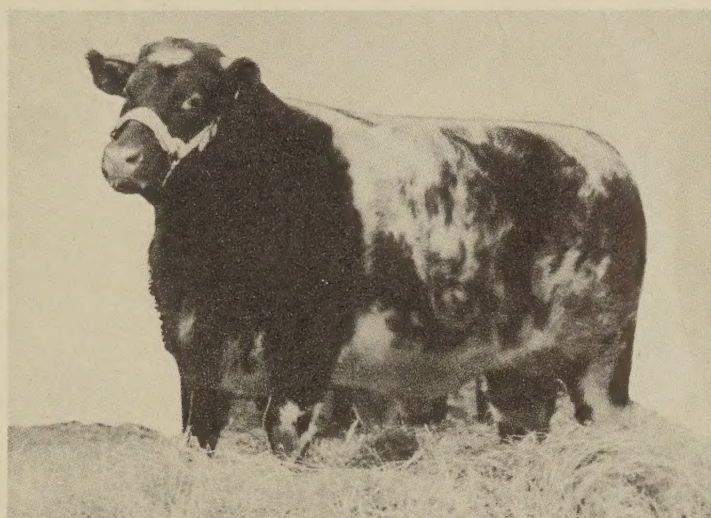

FIRST PRIZE STEERS JUNIOR DIVISION

Radium Boy, first prize in 1150- to 1400-pound class.
Bred by Haylands Farm, Sharpsburg, Ill. Exhibited by James Baker, Illiopolis, Ill.

Ringmaster, first prize in 1050- to 1150-pound class.
Bred by Held Bros., Hinton, Iowa. Exhibited by Warren Held, Hinton, Iowa.

CHAMPION

Double Type, first prize in 900- to 1050-pound class and breed champion. Bred by Husted Bros., Truro, Iowa. Exhibited by Herbert Rees, Pleasantville, Iowa.
Sold at 65c a pound to Merryvale Farm, Grandview, Mo.

RESERVE CHAMPION

Gene, first prize in 700- to 900-pound class and breed reserve champion. Bred by Kuhrt Bros., Edson, Kans.
Exhibited by Helen Althoff, Pipestone, Minn. Sold on order to John Clay and Co., at 33½c a pound.

Divide Grand Duke 2051566, sold in the 1941 International sale at the 20-year International sale record price of $4,000 to E. Arthur Ball, Muncie, Ind. Sire, Duke of Killlearn 1919448; dam, Divide Orange Blossom 2nd 1856439. Bred and sold by The Allen Cattle Co., Colorado Springs, Colo.

Supreme Goldfinder 1920005, whose get won the coveted get of sire award for Husted Bros., Truro, Iowa. Among his get in the show were: Junior and grand champion bull, junior champion female and breed champion steer in junior division. Now owned by Merryvale Farm, Grandview, Mo.

GOOD BREEDING PAYS!

The two bulls pictured here are typical of thousands of similar instances proving beyond question that good breeding pays out in increased profits.